

Ashok Kumar Bhargava
Chief Operating Officer

Ashok Kumar Bhargava is the Chief Operating Officer of PL Engineering and is responsible for overall operations, delivery and management of engineering and project functions.

He is a graduate in Electrical Engineering from BITS Pilani, India and has over 31 years of experience in Engineering and Project Management.

Prior to assuming his current role in PL Engineering, he was with L&T Engineering (2005-2010), heading Fertilizers and Gas processing engineering.

He began his career with Tata Consulting Engineers (TCE) in 1980 where he spent 10 years in Electrical engineering. In 1990, he joined Dalal Consultants and was responsible for Electrical engineering of Chemical plants.

He joined Triune Projects in 1992 as Lead for Electrical engineering of offshore platform projects. In 1995, he joined Samsung Heavy Industries and continued working as Lead for Electrical engineering till 1998.

In 1998, he joined Bechtel as Chief Engineer-Electrical Process Group and moved up the ladder to become Project Engineering Management.

