

Raj Dugar
Director

Raj is Non Executive Director of PL Engineering. He represents Fidelity Growth Partners, which is a significant minority shareholder of PL Engineering.

Raj is the Senior Managing Director at Fidelity Growth Partners India. He has over twelve years of leadership experience in the Indian private equity industry, with experience of investing across multiple stages and industries.

During his private equity career, Raj has also worked in The Carlyle Group and was earlier the co-founder and Managing Director of WestBridge Capital. Earlier, he worked as an investment banker for Goldman Sachs where he was responsible for India coverage and served on the board of Goldman's then JV partner Kotak Mahindra Capital.

Raj holds an AB degree from Dartmouth College and an MBA degree from MIT Sloan School of Management.

